

Suggested DMM Training Schedule For Conducting Trainings During the 3/3rds Group Time

Introduction: We recommend that you stage one training session at least every 4th week or so in your 3/3rds group. You can do this by opening with prayer; go straight to the “check up”; quickly cast vision in a minute or so; then, in the second 3rd, stage the training. For the last 3rd, ask each participant to pray and ask God how they will implement the training in their lives and/or ministries.

There are 3 exceptions to this which are the following:

1. Tell Your Story – Share Your testimony
2. Share the Gospel – RAMP
3. Prayer Wheel/Listening to God from Book of John

For the above trainings we recommend that, just for that meeting, you set aside the 3/3rds format, and focus entirely on the training and the debrief afterward. Then, let the Look Forward be to simply ask who they will share their testimony, or the Gospel with; or else how will they implement the prayer wheel. This will take the entire 1.5 hours many groups have.

Training block: The next 5 trainings could be done consecutively, or in pairs, or one at a time. They will all fit pretty well within the normal 3/3rds format. If you need to shave some time off the Look Back or the Look Forward that's not a problem.

4. Self-feeding: Reading the Word and Prayer
5. Self-feeding: Body Life and Persecution
6. SOAPS training
7. Discipleship Principles: Duckling Discipleship, The Candle, Who is really mature?
8. Discipleship chains and be in 2 groups (includes the Great, Greater and Greatest blessing.)

Training block: The next 3 trainings could also be done consecutively if you wished. The training sequence is flexible and can always be altered in accordance with the needs of the groups.

9. The MAWL training cycle – MAWL in a 3/3rds group
10. Stewardship of Relationships - List of 100; Pace matters;
11. Eyes to see where the Kingdom isn't

The following are probably better taught individually rather than consecutively:

12. Faith
13. BADWR – Be a disciple worth reproducing. Also called “RICO.”
14. Accountability Group/CHAT Group
15. Prayer Walking – Bless prayer

Using the above schedule one could work through the trainings in about 7-8 months.

Further trainings: these are important and should be given. They can be given at any time.

1. DMM PowerPoint – this tool helps cast vision and tells the “Why” of a DMM
2. Baptism – how to prepare someone for baptism.
3. Jesus is a bad marketer.

Some tools that can help you lead and train your group:

1. 3/3rds Training tips sheet. It’s great to go through this with those you are training to lead the group.
2. The training sequence sheet. (That is this sheet.)
3. The DMM tool assessment sheet. Helps you evaluate training proficiency for yourself and for your disciple.

All of the above training materials are available on our website

(<http://3thirdsmovement.com/documents>) and we’re happy to MAWL these materials to you and your group.

We also have some “International Trainings” that we use more for places where a house church is preferable. For access to the International trainings below please contact Eric Barry eric.b@discipleshipglobal.org or Josh Brown jbrown@secc.org.
